In 2012 the company sponsored an event at the Children's Museum of Pittsburgh to raise money for charity (Watsi). This was called Roblox Builders Club: Mutliplayer Tournament which raised over $6,000 for charity water.

Many games on Roblox are online multiplayer games. These games require an internet connection to play and players earn virtual currencies. These currencies may be used to purchase premium features or clothing, which can not be obtained in game. Players can purchase these premium features using real currency such as iTunes or Google Play credit. A key feature of this application is that it allows the users to earn free Robux through online ads and offers, and then use those free Robux for in-game currency in many popular games on Roblox such as Roleplay World or Math Trade Schools .

Some users have noticed that the Roblox logo is a direct parody of Microsoft's logo. The two logos are nearly identical in shape and color scheme.

The only difference between the two logos is that Roblox's logo contains a "R" whereas Microsoft's does not. Another parody was made by RulaGames in 2015 called "Robux". This was a parody to show that everything on Roblox cost money.
