In 2014 Moon Active launched a Kickstarter campaign asking for $8,000 to help progress development of Coin Master on PC platforms. It reached its target and the developers also received additional funding from a Jewish organization to support their work developing "Coin Master". A Minecraft version of Coin Master was also created by Mojang (Minecraft) in 2015, which is available to players free of charge via Minecraft Realms.",

"This is one of my favorite games because of the different levels and how easily it takes all my free time. It would be cool if there were different games you could play with friends online and offline. This game has so much potential, but in its current state I can only say this about the game...
"It had promise."",

The second group of "card packs" was released on August 24, 2016. These card packs were formerly available through a special offer for 25% off the base price. These cards could be purchased in sets of a single character or eight characters. Each set includes six exclusive cards and two bonus cards that are usable in both games (PC and mobile). It is currently possible to collect all twelve free bonus cards if all four character packs are purchased individually after "Coins & Curses 2" is released on PC platforms.",

The sequel featured updated versions of popular games from the 70's-like "Space Invaders". Coin Master: Space Invaders was released in Japan initially as part of Moon Active's "Coin Masters" series. However, this version of the game was never released outside Japan. This version contains microtransactions which can be removed by paying $4.99 for an ad-free version. The user review for Coin Master: Space Invaders is composed of 4.5 out of 5 stars (out of 1 vote) from 1 user, with a user rating of 3 out of 5 stars (out of 1 vote).",
