It is hard because there are so many different types of games you can play, but overall this game is really fun. I love it a lot, and i am addicted to it. The games are very interesting and the graphics are awesome too!",

The developer of Coin Master has been interviewed in numerous publications such as PCWorld, Pocket Gamer, AppAdvice and IGN. In December 2014 a group of students at the University of Maryland College Park released a video titled Sudden Death to promote Coin Master. The video features an NPC character created by one of the developers, who is forced to play the game against a team of players equipped with iPhones on an Android phone. The video had over 3 million views as of April 2015.",

The game was also featured on the front page of the App Store in multiple regions including Canada, United States, United Kingdom and Australia. A spin-off title for iOS devices called "Coin Master: Dig Deep" has been released by United Pixelworkers and is available to play online on any compatible browser or directly through an app designed for iPad, iPhone and iPod Touch. This title was released as a limited time premium version with more in-app purchases which included more levels and content. The PC version of this title has also been released on Steam and is available to download directly from within the Steam application or from its store page which can be found here. This game is similar to "Coins & Curses 2" except that it includes more in-game content.",
