Good for a few hours... by Tenderly18 on 2018/06/07 01:27 I have been playing this game for over 4 years now and I kind of got used to it. But now, it is starting to get annoying. The ads are way too long and I feel like they are just there to draw my attention and make money off of people that like this game. Also, sometimes you don't get the payout you think you do for your tickets or gems. There are some things they really need to work on because otherwise the app gets pretty boring after a while.", Coin Master was generally received well by reviewers. Some praised the concept, artwork and its ability to provide both entertainment and nostalgia. Joystiq referred to it as a "trippy looking game" in their review. This sentiment was echoed by Gametrailers who referred to it as "unique". Other critics felt it was too similar to other games, especially "Tetris" and its clones, which were described as being overplayed in general.",

You are able to unlock new levels by reaching certain levels of XP (experience points), with these levels being effectively allowing you to bank more fish (which cost 1 coin each), and spinning more wheels at one time. There are also achievements which can be unlocked. The achievements can range from getting a certain number of fish to completing a mini game with a certain amount of coins in the time limit. The achievement badges you earn contribute to your level, which is displayed next to your name and player ID on the stats page, and contributes 20 XP per badge. You also receive some XP each time you bank fish or spin a wheel. You are awarded coins based on how many XP you have gained throughout playing the game which can vary from 2-10 gold coins per 100XP depending on how much XP you gained that day.",

In 2015 Moon Active launched a Kickstarter campaign to help fund the development of "Coin Master" on mobile platforms. It reached its target and the developers also received additional funding from a Jewish organization to support their work developing "Coin Master". It was reported that "Coin Master" had reached #1 in United Kingdom's paid apps chart by August 2015.",
