ROBLOX also provides a currency called Robux that players can use to access items within ROBLOX, such as buying backgrounds and avatars. [36] Players can get 10 ROBUX for free upon signing up, but if they choose to purchase blocks, they need more than 10 ROBUX upon signing up. They must either use their free ROBUX or buy some ROBUX. They can earn more by selling items they create in the ROBLOX catalog, but most often they earn ROBUX by playing the many games on ROBLOX.[37]

The company continued to grow after adding more games, more ways to interact with other players, and updates to their backend engine. In 2021, the company launched an official website for users to store their games on the website's database and manage their avatar. In 2021, they also launched a virtual currency system called "Robux". These features allowed them to attract a large amount of players to the website at an early stage.

On June 21st 2021, ROBLOX announced that all spambots will be blocked. [70] Criticism: Roblox is frequently criticized for having a lot of children on the site. This criticism has not been limited to adults, but has also been aimed at the company as well. There have been several stories of people being scammed by users who receive no response when attempting to use a built-in feature that allows the user to block other users from messaging them.[71]

ROBLOX has also been criticised for its lack of support for users who are victims of scams and other forms of theft. Some samples include: A user by the name of EthanSteele has recently had his full game, "The Quest" stolen by someone else and renamed "Game Start". He made an appeal to ROBLOX's administrators on Reddit asking that he be given back his prototype so that he could resume development on it but they banned him and closed his case. Another example was the theft of a user's game, "The Polaroid Project", by another user who put it on a free-to-play model for the purpose of making money.

On January 13th, 2021, ROBLOX implemented broader anti-fraud features called "Secure Trading." The system is designed to prevent fraud such as fake accounts/bots, selling stolen virtual currency and more. It is also designed to allow users to trade in a safer environment. [28]
