For example, Jailbreak offers a premium feature which allows players to purchase more life points. As the game is free, there is no way for them to gain XP in the traditional sense. Instead of implementing XP via cash or coin drop-rates (as would be done in a game that relies on premium features), they offer more life points as a way to make it easier for players if they choose to purchase them. Free games also don't have an option of offering premium features that modify their economies or XP systems. Therefore, they usually offer only the default system as an option for non-Premium members.

On June 21st 2017, ROBLOX announced that all spambots will be blocked. [70] Criticism: Roblox is frequently criticized for having a lot of children on the site. This criticism has not been limited to adults, but has also been aimed at the company as well. There have been several stories of people being scammed by users who receive no response when attempting to use a built-in feature that allows the user to block other users from messaging them.[71]

On August 9, 2016, ROBLOX launched the first RoblEX game, called "RoblEX: The Lost Robots". A new currency was also introduced in this update called "RoblEXX" (Robux in a different form). This was the first time that RoblEXX were ever used. Before this update Robux were used on both games and non-games.

Looking back at my own experience with Minecraft, it's so easy to see why people were so obsessed with it. The game was all about survival. It was about building a new life out of nothing. Things that would make you successful weren't free; they required you to work hard for them. But they were worth the wait, because it would mean you'd gather more items over time, and then you could make your house bigger or better fortified. The game was about connecting with your friends, and making sure that they were safe and able to live their own lives in the Minecraft world as well.

ROBLOX has also been criticised for its lack of badge incentives for participating in games, or even logging into the site at all. ROBLOX models these badges and credit prizes after the badges found in games like Journey, where a lot of doing nothing gives you a lot of money, which is possibly a reason some players don't log in. ROBLOX also has very few quests to complete that reward badges/credits.
