On May 29, 2015, ROBLOX decided to stop giving out high-quality builder's cards to anyone who has one of these cards, making it no longer possible for them to build long games on ROBLOX. This was the first time that high quality builders clubs were ever taken away from people who had them. On July 15, 2016, ROBLOX re-enabled the old low-quality builder's club and added another high quality builders card which can be used by anyone without making their game longer than 30 days. This update helped in the new Club Builder's Club Builder's Club Update which gave people who had builder's cards prior the ability to make their ROBLOX games longer.

You can always go to YouTube and search up something related to roblox or "free robux". All that needs to be done is to click on the first video that has a link encouraging you to get free Robux. You'll then be directed to a page offering you an advertisement reward if you click on it.

I am not a Minecraft addict, but I do enjoy playing that game. However, that is only because my friends and I play it together. Not because of the millions of dollars or diamonds you can get for free on Roblox. People are obsessed with Roblox; my Facebook account was filled with friends who played Minecraft as if they were addicted to crack. They would constantly post pictures about their new lifesize cardboard builds they worked on at home; taking ages-long breaks between each video to watch more videos of minecraft. We've all had friends who were that addicted to Roblox in our time, but I have never met one like Sinead who was "deeply miserable" because she was deprived of playing it. That was always the case whenever anyone mentioned it, I'm sure; parents would frequently ask me if and how I managed to get my grades, and teachers would always ask me if we had any homework. Sometimes they'd even assign us essays to write about our time on Roblox; even though a few months before everyone stopped doing them unless they were mandatory.

On December 30th, 2011, Roblox sent a DMCA notice to Awaited Studios to take down "Infinity: The Quest to the End of the Universe" after noticing that they were releasing code from ROBLOX in their game. Since then, the company has kept all of its released code in a separate source file called "robux".

Looking back at my own experience with Minecraft, it's so easy to see why people were so obsessed with it. The game was all about survival. It was about building a new life out of nothing. Things that would make you successful weren't free; they required you to work hard for them. But they were worth the wait, because it would mean you'd gather more items over time, and then you could make your house bigger or better fortified. The game was about connecting with your friends, and making sure that they were safe and able to live their own lives in the Minecraft world as well.
