On November 7, 2017, Roblox released their first real let's play channel, but it only lasted a couple of months before Roblox cancelled its plans for let's play channels. It stars RandomPlayer as he plays a wide variety of games on ROBLOX, including many popular games such as Angry Birds and Zombieland.

If you don't want to take this serious then stop reading now, but if you want to see what I'm talking about, continue reading. You might feel a little confused about what I'm trying to say but I'll explain it further below.

ROBLOX has also been criticised for its lack of badge incentives for participating in games, or even logging into the site at all. ROBLOX models these badges and credit prizes after the badges found in games like Journey, where a lot of doing nothing gives you a lot of money, which is possibly a reason some players don't log in. ROBLOX also has very few quests to complete that reward badges/credits.

On October 10, 2018, Roblox announced that they will be selling 49% of their ownership stake to Tencent Holdings for $100 million. The transaction is subject to approval by the Roblox board of directors and Tencent before it goes into effect. The acquisition is part of a strategy by RoLabX to become a global gaming powerhouse with operations in China. The deal also confirmed that Tencent will continue to operate as the chief customer and user experience partner for ROBLOX.
