Roblox is used for many educational purposes. For example, students can use it to practice basic coding skills such as the keyboard, the number keys, and how to move the characters on the screen. Teachers have also found it useful for teaching basic physics such as gravity and force. It's also used in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) classes at elementary schools in which students have access to do robotics projects.

ROBLOX Studio, from a desktop PC screenshot taken on 1 September 2013 Game Similarities and differences Roblox games are compared in the table below. Developed by Epic Games. It introduced its own version of placeable objects called forts, which are similar to those found in ROBLOX's games such as "Rusty Heights". [131] Paintball There is a video that shows how to play this game. It consists of two players and two teams. The players try to hit a ball with their guns passed through the paintball-covered targets, and the team that hits the ball through all the targets wins. Grand Theft Auto V ROBLOX was compared with this game because it has similarities with it: it allows players to create their own cities, where users can place art, buildings, houses, vehicles and people. [132] Minecraft This is a creative building game played in an open world. Users have survival games they play in order for them to find loot and obtain materials needed to survive outside of their city(s). ROBLOX is similar to Minecraft because both games are created by the same company. Gamers in ROBLOX can use Minecraft-like blocks to build anything they want. [133]
