Tickets are the secondary currency in Roblox; they can be used to purchase a variety of vehicles, gear (backpacks, jet packs, and recovery kits), weapons (grants a player additional hit points upon taking damage), and other items. In order to purchase most of the premium items from the store, one must own more tickets than is currently available in the user's inventory. The minimum one-time purchase of tickets is US$5 ($8 Note: this price has been around since 2015 but was not posted until 2017).

The company continued to grow after adding more games, more ways to interact with other players, and updates to their backend engine. In 2008, the company launched an official website for users to store their games on the website's database and manage their avatar. In 2009, they also launched a virtual currency system called "Robux". These features allowed them to attract a large amount of players to the website at an early stage.

On May 31st, 2017, ROBLOX announced that they would be adding the ability to purchase ROBLOX Points via PayPal, which will allow for them to offer virtual currency for in-game items and ROBUX purchases.[17] The announcement was made on the official blog.

One of ROBLOX's main rivals is Tencent, a Chinese company. The two companies even share employees and developers, including the current admin. ROBLOX as well as Tencent are often compared to each other due to their similarities.

Roblox was revealed as the top website for malware infections in the U.S.[74] And as of 2015, it was accused of having more malware downloads than any other website in the world.[75]
