Roblox is a very fun game platform for kids because they can create their own worlds and game scenarios with a lot of mini-games and activities such as playing sports and fighting monsters. Roblox also has many free platforms that have educational purposes which mostly focus on teaching kids about problem solving, teamwork, learning how to share with others and other social issues. The players' avatars can speak their created languages or standard English.

I also remember back when Minecraft was first released, how difficult it was to find anyone who was willing to play with you or help you if your work didn't work out; but I did find my lovely wonderful best friend through Roblox and we play together every single day. Even though there is no one on my friends list, I can still go into Roblox and join a game with other people. When I do that, my friend will always join me if she's in the same room. But even so, I never have any actual friends in-game because it becomes a very lonely experience as time progresses.

On September 5th 2018, ROBLOX targeted a large amount of its users by adding in-game ads on most games for free. Players would be given an ad in the bottom right corner of their screen with the option of clicking it to see more games. This is very similar to how Facebook and Google ads work, however, the Roblox ads cannot be clicked on and are only meant as a distraction. Users would need to leave the game before seeing the ad again or wait until they lose interest in playing any other game. The new system was rolled out in large parts making users question ROBLOX's integrity as a company.

In a response, Roblox stated that the employee who did this was dismissed after a thorough investigation and that they are committed to making improvements to their workplace environment. Chris Misner also stated that she suffered retaliation from other Roblox employees for contacting the media and posting about her experiences with the company.

On March 18, 2017, ROBLOX introduced Virtual Pre-Orders which allow users to purchase merchandise months before it is released for general purchases. These items include apparel and accessories for your avatar. On May 7, 2017 ROBLOX announced the launch of a new virtual item known as the Game Ticket which allows players to purchase one game a month for 6 months (at half price). Players must be signed in and have a valid payment method in order to access the store.
