The lawsuit alleged that Roblox had an HR department that was unequipped to deal with discrimination and harassment claims, falsely stated employees' work hours to avoid providing overtime pay, and broke state laws regarding how long time employees must be given notice before being laid off.

On September 13, 2016, ROBLOX launched its tenth birthday party along with an event called BLOXtober. The purpose of this annual event is to celebrate ROBLOX's birthday and give players badges for completing The Admin's tasks every day until October 15th. The badge is called BLOXtagger and can be worn on your profile for the year. The tasks were also modified to let you earn the badges by simply logging in every day.

If you do not already have a badge, then you will gain one once you have logged in every day for two days consecutively. At the end of BLOXtober, ROBLOX held a contest called RoblXtheRave, where people were given a chance to win a large sum of money in cash by answering trivia questions that were asked throughout October 11th-13th.

ROBLOX has also come under criticism for not having any sort of Quality Assurance, meaning that there is a high chance that the art in users' games will have issues, such as visual glitches, poor texture quality, and various other issues with the art itself.

On July 19th, 2019, ROBLOX announced its new version of the catalog, where users can now search games by the Tags that already been implemented onto all of the games recently. This was created to allow users to discover new content with ease and quickly find what they are looking for. Also more updates have been added in this catalog such as viewing game thumbnail frames, images, descriptions, and more.

In 2017, ROBLOX held its first annual "Builders Open Tournament" during March Madness of that year. The tournament features five games and has a prize pool of $100,000 (prize money to be awarded at the end of the tournament). The tournament also gave away 5 million Robux (10x), which was enough to purchase an Xbox One S.
