ROBLOX has also been criticised for its lack of badge incentives for participating in games, or even logging into the site at all. ROBLOX models these badges and credit prizes after the badges found in games like Journey, where a lot of doing nothing gives you a lot of money, which is possibly a reason some players don't log in. ROBLOX also has very few quests to complete that reward badges/credits.

In response to these criticism, the ROBLOX website says that "Roblox does not condone the use of unauthorized software programs in games.". However, this is not always the case as all users have full access to all of their content. In addition, if a publisher chooses to remove a particular asset from their game they cannot be held accountable for it."

In January 2017, Roblox permanently banned all accounts that were created by Arielle De La Rosa. The company said it was because of her "continued behavior", which included actions such as creating Emily Roe and harassing other users, as mentioned above. Although she had been blocked from Roblox for over a year, they said their original ban for her had been lifted in November 2016. They also stated that she could no longer be unblocked on their platform because of previous harassment reports against other players. The ban was not for her actions, but instead because of the continued harassment she had done.

On December 14, 2017, ROBLOX announced that it had partnered with Warner Bros. to produce a game based on the upcoming film "Justice League" (which is scheduled for a 2018 release). The game will be based on Batman's sidekick Robin, and will come in two forms: one which is story-based and one which is puzzle-based. The game was released in Europe on November 28, 2018 and in North America on November 30, 2018.

ROBLOX has also been criticized on another level. Many people have said that they will never use ROBLOX again after the lack of response from the administration team. This is because even after reporting rule breakings, there is still no action taken against the players who do so. This has caused people to lose respect for the administration team.
