On December 15th, 2018, ROBLOX announced the end of the open beta for their new trading system. The company removed the ability to trade in-game currency among users and limited users' ability to purchase system currency from outside sources while adding even more security features by requiring cards or other forms of identification before buying virtual currency. The reason for the change was to prevent users from spending too much virtual currency on outside purchases of no value to the user. The system was a success, reducing the rate of fraud.[25]

Trivia In 2014, ROBLOX created a game called "Tank Trouble" that was very similar to the popular game "Minecraft". This caused a lot of people to leave ROBLOX due to the lack of creativity and stealing other companies ideas. Later on, Minecraft and ROBLOX started exploring ways to work together which ended up in creating an official version of Minecraft on ROBLOX as well as adding multiple features from Minecraft into their site. The official version is called "Bloxburg" and the unofficial version is called "Roxburgh".
