Many games on Roblox are online multiplayer games. These games require an internet connection to play and players earn virtual currencies. These currencies may be used to purchase premium features or clothing, which can not be obtained in game. Players can purchase these premium features using real currency such as iTunes or Google Play credit. A key feature of this application is that it allows the users to earn free Robux through online ads and offers, and then use those free Robux for in-game currency in many popular games on Roblox such as Roleplay World or Math Trade Schools .

The next game that would allow users to do this was Parkour Paradise on August 16th of 2012. ROBLOX is the first game to have a player base where 70% of their players are between ages 10-15 and 30% are between ages 15-25.[126]

In December 2011, a lawsuit was filed against Roblox for copyright infringement, in which ROBLOX is accused of copying the entire codebase and game assets of "Infinity: The Quest to the End of the Universe". A cease and desist was also filed against ROBLOX in September 2012 by a head developer from the website Games Done Quick for using their copyrighted content without permission.

On December 18th, 2019, ROBLOX announced their controversial decision on how they plan on handling moderators in the future.[106] This caused controversy within the community as many moderators believed they wouldn't be able to perform their job correctly due to ROBLOX's change of plan.

On May 21, 2010, ROBLOX launched its second virtual item, the Accessory Shop. This shop is available only to ROBLOX VIP members and is only accessible by those with a valid VIP membership code. The Accessory Shop was later renamed to the Vault in 2011 before completely changing its name to the Catalog in 2016 combined with the construction of the Warehouse Store. It was renamed again on December 20, 2018 as ROBLOX's new virtual store where you can get things like clothing and accessories for your Avatar with other items like hats and shirts which will be available to other players at the same time for legit ways such as purchase or win from contests or similar events.
