The Roblox fly hack is not an entirely trackable game. It has been used to cheat on the game, blow up your inventory with limitless weapons and even get the creator's account. The game uses a form of tracking that makes it possible for people to use loopholes in the system and also detect when someone is using these glitches. The creators of the game have done research into ways to combat this issue, however, no viable solution has been found thus far.

From June 12th 2018 to July 30th 2019, the Roblox network was under a major DDoS attack from a group called "Apothis Squad". This group was demanding that Roblox pay 10 million US dollars into their Bitcoin account or they would continue to perform DDoS attacks on the site. They also threatened to kidnap staff members and steal their hair if ROBLOX declined their offer. According to Roblox, this group caused 3.7 million dollars worth of damage.[103] The group also began sabotaging ROBLOX's YouTube channel by uploading offensive videos and ads towards users who clicked on it, which caused the platform to ban the channel in July 2019.

On June 21st 2017, ROBLOX announced that all spambots will be blocked. [70] Criticism: Roblox is frequently criticized for having a lot of children on the site. This criticism has not been limited to adults, but has also been aimed at the company as well. There have been several stories of people being scammed by users who receive no response when attempting to use a built-in feature that allows the user to block other users from messaging them.[71]

Some other ways that these generators get more traffic is through sending out promotional codes on social media sites like Twitter or Facebook while also using email marketing techniques.
