Roblox has been criticized for allowing other companies to make games on their site such as "Mining Simulator", which is a game that contains copyrighted material from BeamNG.drive, and "Brain Simulator", which is a clear clone of Brain Cube (which was also created by the same person who created Brain Simulator), and copyrighted material from several other games such as Robloxian Highschool and Backyard Zombies.

I love how you can play with your friends but I wish that it was easier to make friends, and I also think that there should be more options to choose from when it comes to picking a skin, and I also wish that there were more games with different kinds of genres like horror or even some kitty games for cute lovers.

Some users have also claimed that ROBLOX never responds to or bans reported users. This is because there are many cases where both inappropriate content spreads rapidly through the site, but ROBLOX does nothing about it because they do not want to ban accounts for minor rule violations like swearing, nudity or spamming in chat.

Roblox has been accused of neglecting its staff and failing to offer development positions to its employees because its staff is almost entirely composed of white males, even though Roblox's community has been growing in diversity for years.

Looking back at my own experience with Minecraft, it's so easy to see why people were so obsessed with it. The game was all about survival. It was about building a new life out of nothing. Things that would make you successful weren't free; they required you to work hard for them. But they were worth the wait, because it would mean you'd gather more items over time, and then you could make your house bigger or better fortified. The game was about connecting with your friends, and making sure that they were safe and able to live their own lives in the Minecraft world as well.
