ROBLOX is built upon a custom system that includes its own scripting language and core programming languages. While it may not be true to say that all games on ROBLOX are made with ROBLOX's scripting language, this is true of the vast majority of games on the site. The scripting language is easy to learn, but more advanced scripting calls can be difficult to implement for users who do not know the syntax or do not have the time. This has led to many third-party solutions (modification of gameplay, ROBLOX engine modifications and others) being made by experienced users so that less experienced users can get a head start in the game development process.

- No clear guidelines as to how the game works. There is no tutorial on how to build things or what some items do.

On March 18th, 2019, ROBLOX announced that they were working on a system that would allow them to detect bot accounts and confiscate accounts from them.[31]On April 25th, 2019, ROBLOX announced "Secure Trading" again as they would require players to use their respective Facebook page accounts for trading purposes. As of June 15th, 2019, ROBLOX will still allow customers from around the world to trade with other users without requiring Facebook. [32]

On May 22, 2018, ROBLOX launched Project Bloks, an app for iOS and Android devices that is aimed towards children 2-12 years old. The app allows users to build various blocks available in the game. Some blocks are also available as virtual items for purchase. The revenue earned from these items is then distributed among the app developers on ROBLOX. The game was first released in Canada, and now has been released in the United States.
