On March 31, 2010, ROBLOX announced that they would be updating their policy on how they handle user information.[1] On May 5, 2010, a mass email was sent out from the company to its users informing them of changes made to their Privacy Policy and Terms of Use. The changes were made in the name of increased safety and security, and it was stated that the change was made in order to "protect [its] members."

On December 21st, 2011, the game "Infinity: The Quest to the End of the Universe" was released by a company called "Awaited Studios". After this game was released, it came to light that much of its code was being used in ROBLOX's main source code.

On August 31, 2017, there was a large lawsuit that ROBLOX was involved in. The user "Bella Thorne" had an unverified account that was deleted by ROBLOX due to copyright claims, although these claims were proven false. Then, the account was deleted and the user made a video about how her account got taken down, where she shows screen caps of some users who hate her on the website, as well as saying several bad words such as foul language and racial slurs.

The next games that would allow users to invite others into their worlds were Habbo Hotel where they had their FriendBook and later on also added a FriendChat system in December of 2011, Club Penguin where you could invite fellow penguins into your world, and Mario8 since 2014. ROBLOX is the first game to allow players to create actual games that you can play online by using either a physical controller or just your keyboard. [124] The next game that would allow users to do this was Parkour Paradise on August 16th of 2012. [125]

On May 24th 2019, ROBLOX announced another update for their Studio 2.1 version. This update, known as "Studio 2.1.1", was released to the public on May 31st 2019.[98] Like many other platforms, ROBLOX also has an adult chat system. This is usually used by roleplayers and other users who wish to talk about mature topics freely. However, players have abused this feature by advertising Roblox pornography websites or trolling innocent users.[99] Some users have also used the system to claim that their username is "Not suitable for children" or use inappropriate usernames in order to get attention from others.[100] It is unknown whether ROBLOX will ever remove this feature from their platform.
